

How do I fill in my sampling form?

It is important that you fill in this form in its entirety and provide correct information. Incomplete or false information will be detrimental to the accuracy of your diagnosis. .

Follow the steps below step by step, numbered from 1 to 9.

01

Start by sticking part of the label on this identification form and the other part on the corresponding bottle..

02

If you have a business stamp, please place it in this area.

03

If the business stamp does not mention all the information needed, please add any relevant details here.

05

Please specify the type of material is being tested.

07

Please specify which fluid is being tested.

08

Specifications regarding the sample; please also mention if the fluid has been drained, or if it is still in service (intermediate)

09

Feel free to mention any additional information that might be of use.

04

Test code/ analysis reference :

please write down your desired analysis sequence here (if known)

Tracking number :

if this material has already been tested once please write down its tracking number here.

The Tracking number can be found on each report or in Customer section of our website.

Order number :

To be filled in, if possible

Réf WO-OI-File:

To be filled in, if possible : Reference, Work order, Intervention order, File reference).

06

Please specify which organ is being tested including fluid capacity and any other relevant information

If necessary, please write down any additional information on the back of this form. You can also register your sample and fill this form online on the "Record a sample" section of our DiagServer portal: .

Accessible from : www.iespm.com